The Value Line Home Page

The Value Line Convertibles Survey comes in two main parts; a website, with both a free and subscriber-only section, and an e-mail newsletter that notifies subscribers of subscriber-only updates to the web site.

To access the Convertibles section of the Value Line site, simply go to www.valueline.com and place your cursor on the Research Hub tab from the menu across the top of the page. There a drop-down menu lists all of Value Line's products and tools. Move your cursor to Convertibles and click on the Overview link.

This is a free site, where you can take a look at general articles and screens contained on our site. More free articles and screens are available if you click on the links in the menu area.

From this area subscribers can link to the Convertibles Survey by clicking on the Convertibles Survey link at the bottom of the drop-down menu. This is a quick and easy way to get from the free section of the Convertibles site to the subscriber-only areas. You can also get to this section by clicking on the link Convertibles Survey when opening the Convertibles product area from the Research Hub.

(Once logged in, the top right of the page contains your name and a sign-out link.)

The Commentary Tab

The Value Line Convertibles Survey comes in two main parts: These consist of a website and an email newsletter to notify you of the weekly updates to the website.

The main section of The Convertibles site is titled “Commentary,” your location is always denoted on the tab above the content area of the page. Here you will find the articles that populate the email newsletter.

On the Commentary page, each article has its own title and an introductory section below. To access the article, you can either click on the article, or the “More>” link that appears after the introductory text. At the bottom of the page you will find links to all of the previous articles posted to the Convertibles site.

Note that some of the articles are webpage based, and others are in PDF format. In order to take full advantage of all that The Convertibles product has to offer, you will need a PDF reader.

The Screener Tab

On the “Screener” page, you will find The Value Line Convertibles Survey’s screening tool. This will allow you to search our convertibles database for individual securities by company name, common stock ticker, or industry.

You can easily perform broad searches using criteria, such as industry, issue type, common stock rank, convertible rank, and investment grade.

You can also search using security specific factors, such as conversion premium, investment premium, current yield, and yield to maturity.

Of course you can combine any of these factors to create a list of convertibles that fit your exact investment objectives.

By clicking on any convertible that passes through the screener, you can view a fact sheet displaying all of the information on that security in an easy to read and print format.

The Survey Issues Tab

On the Survey Issues page, you will find the downloadable convertible and warrant spreadsheets. These documents contain data on all convertibles and warrants, and their underlying common stocks, in our service. You can use these spreadsheets, offline, to query our database on any piece of the data provided for both convertibles and warrants that fit your investment needs.

You will also find our bi-monthly newsletter (a pdf file) on this page. Clicking on the links “The Value Line Convertibles Survey” opens the latest edition of our 36-page bi-monthly newsletter, which you may read online or print to take with you. This is also a compilation of the Email/Web content, as well as 24 pages of information on convertibles and four pages of information on warrants set out in easy-to-read columns.

In addition, our “How To” guides for getting started on the website, as well as learning the ropes of investing in convertibles are located on this page.
